American Revolution Event (Peer Review)

Prompt:

You will be assigned to partner up with someone who has completed the American Revolution Research assignment. You'll swap the paper research and review each other's work with a critical eye to check for understanding, spelling, and grammar. Complete the directions below.

Directions:

- Check off each box as you have completed the task. Check this box when you have finished reading this.
- Sit with your partner and swap your complete research with each other
- Take out a red pen (or a pen of a color different from your partner's writing) to peer edit
- Read through your partner's research once without making any correction or discussion
- Read again. As you read, check for:
 - Spelling (is everything spelled right?)
 - Underline the misspelled word
 - Grammar (does the sentence make sense? Ex. subject/verb agreement)
 - Circle the sentence or phrase that has grammar issues
 - Understanding (does what they wrote make sense?)
 - Write a '?' next to the sentence or phrase that doesn't make sense
- Once you and your partner are done, swap back your research and discuss the following:
 - Does the summary make sense? Does it explain why this event would have led to a revolution?
 - Did your partner clearly explain how the American Colonists may have felt about this event?
 - Did your partner clearly explain how the British Government may have felt about this event?
 - Spelling, Grammar, and Understanding issues you may have marked
 - Thank your partner for their review
