

Chapter 16 Note Guide – Atlantic Revolutions, Global Echoes – Ways of the World, 3rd Ed

I. Introduction

II. Atlantic Revolutions in Global Context

- a. How Atlantic revolutions were linked
 - i. Their global impact

III. Comparing Atlantic Revolutions

- a. American Revolution...
 - i. Conservative political goals
 - ii. Difference from England (and sources of conflict)
 - iii. How “revolutionary” it was
 - iv. “A new order for the ages”
 - b. French Revolution...
 - i. Sources of conflict
 - ii. Importance of social classes
 - iii. Radical changes brought to France
 - 1. The Terror
 - 2. Efforts to create a new society
 - 3. Treatment of women
 - iv. Role of Napoleon Bonaparte
-

- c. Haitian Revolution...
 - i. Source of conflict
 - 1. Influence of French Revolution
 - ii. Changes brought by the revolution
 - 1. Problems that followed
 - iii. Reactions and effects outside of Haiti
 - d. Spanish American Revolutions...
 - i. Role of creoles
 - ii. Disadvantages compared to United States
 - iii. Appeal to nativism
 - iv. Failure to unite
-

IV. Echoes of Revolution

- a. Smaller revolutions in Europe, 1830-1870
 - i. Decembrist Revolt*
- b. Abolition of slavery...
 - i. Enlightenment criticisms
 - ii. Slave revolts
 - iii. Abolitionist movement and resistance
 - iv. Effects of the end of Atlantic slavery
- c. Rise of nationalism
 - i. Factors that affected old/new loyalties
 - ii. Political effects (changes to the map of Europe, essentially)
- d. Feminist beginnings...
 - i. Enlightenment influence

AP World History

- ii. Seneca Falls Conference
- iii. Women's suffrage
- iv. Other gains for women